The Production Company is agreeing to compensate to the property owner. The Production Company is the only and absolute responsible in case of any demand, judicial process or judgement caused by personal damages or to the property that could stem or happen during the activities of the applicant, his employers or others. Counciling bylaws must be respected when the shooting is in historical buildings, parks and gardens. A synopsis containing all the scenes that will be filmed is required. This contract can be revoked in any moment. Santiago de Compostela Film Commission and Santiago de Compostela City Hall must appear on credit lines of all films. The premiere day and the distribution of the film will be notified. A VHS copy of the production is required for our own audiovisual file.

By signing this document, the producer authorizes Santiago de Compostela Film Commission to act on his behalf for the management and processing of the documentation necessary for the filming or recording in the municipality of Santiago de Compostela. This authorization is granted for all procedures and administrative procedures that may be required.
